

Chocolate tasting session organized

■ NEW YORK: Lend-A-Hand India, a non-profit organization working for the cause of youth unemployment in India, organized a chocolate tasting session at MadamX lounge in SOHO, New York, last week. Over 150 chocolate enthusiasts participated in the program and learnt how to differentiate between various varieties of chocolates. Jackie Gordon from Divalicious Chocolate led the tasting sessions and

Guests at the chocolate tasting session

Obaid Kidwani, host for Namaste America, hosted the event.

Lend-A-Hand India will also organize a marathon training initiative "Run for a Dream" this week to encourage runners to reach their goal of a marathon or a half marathon, while helping the organization to reach out to the rural poor and help them come out of poverty. For more information log on to www.runfordream.org.